

Year's First German Tomorrow Night

Glee Club Gives Christmas Program

The Mary Washington college Glee club will present its annual Christmas Carol program under the direction of Miss Marion Caunsey in the auditorium of James Monroe high school, Sunday afternoon, December 17, at 4:30 p. m.

The program will contain familiar Christmas carols and many new ones. Solos and group numbers will be given by members of the club. Among the outstanding features are the processional and recessional, sung by candlelight.

The visiting guest soloist for the program will be Mrs. Vera Neely Ross, of Washington, D. C., new voice teacher in the college music department. Miss Ronna Faulkner, harpist, will also be a guest soloist.

The Mary Washington A Cappella Choir will make its first appearance at this time, singing a group of three old European Christmas songs. Assisting at this concert the college orchestra, directed by Mr. Ronald Faulkner, will play an instrumental prelude and the accompaniments for many of the familiar carols.

Since the first Christmas candle-light service was begun two years ago, no admission has been charged. This year, however, according to Miss Chauncey, the concert will be given as a benefit program, the entire proceeds to be divided between the under-privileged children at James Monroe elementary school and the children's ward of Mary Washington hospital in Fredericksburg. The price of admission will be 25 cents for everybody.

The visiting guest soloist for the program, Mrs. Ross, is a graduate of the University of Kansas and had a Juilliard Fellowship in New York city.

Mrs. Ross has taught at the University of Kansas, the University of Wyoming, and is teaching at present at the Washington Musical Institute in Washington, D. C., in addition to teaching voice at Mary Washington college.

"The Glee club feels that it is very fortunate in having Mrs. Ross as soloist and in having her make her first concert appearance in Fredericksburg in its program," stated Miss Chauncey.

Plans are also being made by the club to present "The Desert Song" this spring. The Glee club will be assisted by the college orchestra under the direction of Mr. Faulkner; the dramatic parts will be directed by Mr. Harold Welles and the dances by Miss Mildred Stewart. The men's parts will be chosen from local Fredericksburg talent, men on the faculty, and visiting artists.

Many other programs will be given during the year, consisting of college concerts, programs at various churches and radio broadcasts.

The following committee chairmen have been appointed for the Glee club for the 1939-1940 session, each chairman having three members as assistants: concerts, Sylvia Chelgrew and Meliscent Graeff; auditorium, Katherine Nelson; finance, Jo Lee Fleet, treasurer; publicity, Elizabeth Winfree; (Continued on Page Three)

Annual Doll Show Nears Completion By Freshmen

The Doll Show, sponsored by the Freshman class, will be judged Tuesday evening, December 12 at 7 P. M. in the Town Girls room in Chandler Hall.

The judges will be Mrs. Charles L. Bushnell, Mrs. Edward Alvey, Jr., and Mrs. A. B. Chandler.

Included among the scenes will be a fashion show, post office scene, Betty Lewis kitchen, scene from "The Women," a reveille scene in Willard, "pickaninny" scene, Cinderella scene, Red Riding Hood, Frank's, Wizard of Oz, church scene, and music scene.

The members of the Freshman Commission, which has charge of the show, and their sponsors are as follows:

Anne Duane and Ruth Duff; Anne Mays and Evalyn Kerby; Alice Burton and Dot Munden; Nancy Leigh Cronin and Jane Smith; Irene Altieri and Mary Jane Beatty; Virginia Speigle and Rosella Tuck; Ruth Birchett and Moe Kent; Betty Lewis and Mary Lee Pitman; Penelope Croas and Virginia Reel; Peggy Moran and Peggy Snow; Rhea James and Helen Burton; Nancy Brown and Penny Bien; Betty Jones and Adelaide Roseborough; Weslia Stafford and Eleanor Batschlet and Milliscent Graeff; Patsy McCulloch and Jane Hatcher; Nancy Lee Wilkinson and Joanna Pappandrea.

The shows will be open every day from 8 P. M. on Tuesday until Sunday and there will be no admission charge.

The commissioners are planning a Christmas party after the judging, in honor of the three winners.

Alpha Phi Sigma Entertains Initiates

The Gamma Chapter of Alpha Phi Sigma, a National Honorary Fraternity, of Mary Washington College held its annual initiatory service recently in the college tea room at 3:00 P. M. A number of outstanding scholars in their respective high schools before coming to college were accepted into the fraternity. Others having established unusually high grades at Mary Washington College also received degrees at that time.

Miss Ruth Anderson of Norfolk, Virginia, presided over the initiation and at the tea which was given after the initiation.

Mary Washington College On The Air

Monday, December 11—The Four J's.

Tuesday, December 12—Musical.

Wednesday, December 13—Radio Quiz Class.

Thursday, December 14—The Gypsy's Serenade.

Friday, December 15—The Three Bets.

Tune in daily to W. F. V. A. from 1:15 to 1:30 P. M.

Miss Margaret McCulloch and Escort Conway W. Smith, Jr.

Peanut Week Arouses Enthusiasm

Monday night, December 11, marks the beginning of the annual "Peanut Week," sponsored by the Y. W. C. A.

At dinner Monday night, peanut shells will be distributed to the girls with names on their "peanut," and also the name of her dormitory, and number of Post Office box. This is climaxed with a formal dinner Friday night, when the "peanuts" are to be identified. During the week the girls send little gifts and notes to their peanut without letting them know who they are, and then a larger gift is to be given Friday night with their name on it. This gift isn't to exceed 25 cents.

The purpose of the project is to get girls acquainted with girls whom they wouldn't ordinarily meet.

A roster will be posted in the dome room of Seacobeck hall with the names of girls and the dining hall in which they eat. Each row is to be numbered and the tables are to be numbered also.

Peggy Thompson, vice president of the Y. W. C. A., is chairman of "Peanut Week."

New Books Cover Variety of Subjects

One hundred and ten books have been catalogued and placed on the library shelves since the first of November. Of this number, one hundred and one are new titles, and the others are added copies or new editions.

Especially rich in drama this collection contains many familiar titles, such as: Barrie's "Dear Brutus"; Coward's "Tonight at 8:30"; "Idiot's Delight" by Sherwood; Ryerson's "Ladies Alone"; and "Green Grow the Lilacs" by Riggs.

Included among the numerous books on the theater are found "Stage Scenery and Lighting," "Theater in a Changing Europe," (Continued on Page Three)

Chase Addresses Frosh Convocation

Mr. Francis S. Chase, executive secretary of the Virginia State Board of Education, was guest speaker at the Freshman convocation, Wednesday night.

His talk concerned education in Virginia and the amount of money she expends for each student.

The speaker stressed the point of the lack of sufficient money necessary to pay for each student's education, and that, for her ability, Virginia paid next to the lowest amount of any state in the South necessary to educate each student properly.

A short meeting of the freshman class was called by its president, Peggy Moran. A committee was appointed to take charge of the party that the freshmen are to give to the juniors.

Those on the committee are: Grace Edwards, vice-president of the class, acting as chairman; Deborah Goldstein, Edith Lester, Betty Jean Pittman and Frances Spivey.

Seniors Entertain Freshmen With Barn Dance

The Juniors and Freshmen really "let themselves go" last Friday night at the barn dance in the big gym. Farmer boys ("gray-nineties gals") "flapper Fannies", and all manner of little pig-tailed and ribboned school girls were rampant on the dance floor, which was effectively decorated for the occasion with cornstalks, hay, and the like. The Junior Class, who presented the part for the Freshmen, had prepared a really "old-time" program of entertainment. There were antics by Uncle Acia (Peggy Thompson), songs by the Oak City Four (nee Four J's), and solos by Jamie Redwood and Virginia Taylor. Instrumentalists for (Continued on Page Three)

Miss McCulloch Will Lead The Figure

Tea Dance To Be Saturday Afternoon

This week end will be featured with the semi-annual German Club dance.

Saturday afternoon from the hours of 4 to 6 a tea dance will be held in Chandler Hall. Climaxing the week end of events will be the German Club dance Saturday night from 9 to 12, in Monroe Hall, in view of the fact that the George Washington ballroom wasn't available at this time.

The decorations for the big gymnasium will conform to Christmas colors, which will be decorated in a motif of Milady's Fan in green and red.

At 12 o'clock there will be a buffet supper in Seacobeck.

The dance will be opened with a figure led by Margaret McCulloch, president of the club, and her escort, Conway W. Smith, Jr. Margaret will wear a black evening dress.

Mrs. C. L. Bushnell, sponsor of the club, and her escort, Walter J. Young, Jr., will be second. The remaining officers of the club will be next in the figure. They are Eleanor Small, vice-president, and her escort, Ned White; Martha Lee Bennett, secretary, with her escort, Covie Bowen; and Adine Goodloe, treasurer, escorted by Charles Fernyhugh; also Jackie Edge, president of the Cotillion Club, with her escort, Hugh Kitchen, and members of the executive committee, Kay Rucker, Eloise Caverlee and Jamie Redwood. Following them will be the members of the German Club.

Frances Brooks, last year's president, led the last German dance figure with her escort, Al Miller.

This year the membership of the club is larger than it has been in any previous year and also the guest list is larger than on any other occasion.

Those who are to attend the dances are as follows:

The old members of the German Club are: Misses Martha Lee Bennett, Eloise Caverlee, Barbara Gaines, Adine Goodloe, Jane Haddox, Rosalie Johnson, Lee Wingate Keith, Juanita Lassiter, Margaret McCulloch, Caroline Muirhead, Kay Nelson, Virginia Ramsey, Jamie Redwood, Beverly Roberts, Kay Rucker, Eleanor Small, and Jo Lee Fleet.

The new members are: Barbara Apple, Aloise Brill, Nancy Brooke Helen June Campbell, Zelene des Champs, Ruth Cheshire, Sarah Cooke, Mary Estes, Constance Hawthorne, Annette Hodnett, Elizabeth Hoffman, Betsy Jean Hurt, Jean Ivey, Grace Korster, Lois Loehr, Jean McCaffrey, Patsy McCulloch, Martha Minges, Sally Phillis, Dorothy Lee Satterfield, Betty Simmons, Emilion Smith, Frances Spivey, Weslia Stafford, Edna Vass, Mildred Vass, Dorothy Vernon, Betty Whitacre, Melba Winslow, Margery Wood, Josephine Peoples and Donald Holden.

(Continued on Page Four)

The Bullet

Published weekly by the Bullet Staff of Mary Washington College, Fredericksburg, Va. $1.00 a year; 2c a single copy.

Member Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association
Member Columbian Scholastic Association
Member

Associated Collegiate Press
Distributor of Collegiate Digest

EDITORIAL STAFF

JO LEE FLEET EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
LUCY DICKINSON NEWS EDITOR
MAJORIE CLAPP ASSIST. NEWS EDITOR
BARBARA APPLE FEATURE EDITOR

TRIBUTE

On our return from the Thanksgiving holidays, we were informed that after eleven o'clock there would be no classes, and that we were to remain quietly on the hill during the afternoon, in order that we might honor the memory of one—E. Lee Trinkle.

Since that time there have been a number of our out-of-state girls who have asked questions concerning the dismissal of classes, and the man whose funeral was held that day.

To those of us in Virginia the name E. Lee Trinkle has long been familiar. Even before his election as governor of the Commonwealth in 1922, he had served the state and his county in many public capacities. He conducted a most successful practice in law, and was also associated with his brother in business.

At the time of his death, he was in addition to being president of the Shenandoah Life Insurance Company, Chairman of the State Board of Education. Tho not engaged in politics as actively as in the past, he still took a prominent part in Virginia affairs. In fact it was said of him that "he knew more Virginians personally than any other man in the state save Governor Price."

Mr. Trinkle was born in Wytheville, and attended Hampden-Sydney College, where he graduated in 1896. At college he managed the baseball and football teams, was manager of the annual, magazine, and glee club, and won the orator's, debater's and declaimer's medals. He graduated at the head of his class.

In 1898 he graduated in law from the University of Virginia. He was the Moat Court prize, highest award of the law class, and was voted the most influential man at the university by the students. At the State University he was also manager of the baseball team and the glee club, and was a member of Sigma Chi Social Fraternity, and Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity.

During his governorship he promoted public education, did much for the economic side of Virginia's life, and strongly advocated the building up and publicizing of Virginia's potentialities and advantages.

If he could have chosen the place for his death, one of his choices might have been just such a situation as that in which he died—in the midst of an educational meeting. For there is no man in the state of Virginia who had the education of its youth at heart than did E. Lee Trinkle.

And so we joined Virginia in mourning one of her great.

JOLLY'S JOKES

Dr. Scott: "How many sets of teeth do men have."
Edna Rubin: "Three—baby, permanent and false."

Breathes there a man
With soul so dead
Who never to himself
Hath said—"Hm! Not bad!"

Dr. Whitesell: "Why don't you answer me?"
Margaret Moore: "I did—I shook my head."

Dr. Whitesell: "Well you can't expect me to hear it rattle 'way up here!"

Ann Peikich and Mildred MacPherson were discussing men. Asked Ann: "Which would you desire most in a husband—brains, wealth, or appearance?"
"Appearance," replied Mid, "and the sooner, the better."

DAFFY NITIONS

POWDER: Some thing that may cause an explosion if found on the lapel.

OUIJA BOARD: Something to take up your time when you have something else to do.

ETC.: That which a person puts when he can't think of anything else to say.

ETC. . ETC. ETC.

Philosophical Phil Says

If you have "njun" trouble don't get on the warpath.

He gets on best with women who knows best how to get on without them.

A loafer is someone who is usually busy keeping someone else from working.

A bird in the hand is worth two in the cherry tree.

A rolling stone gathers no moss, but neither does rolling moss gather many stones—so what?

Sherman knew what war is but

INTERESTING PERSONALITIES

Scene: Junior Barn Dance for the Freshmen.

Situation: A costume contest is in progress.

Characters: "Aunt Polly and other country folk."

Lights! Action! Camera! The audience is hushed as the announcer prepares to speak. The winner is "Aunt Polly!"

Of course in reality, she is Fannie Willard's own Betty Collins. But she will long be called "Aunt Polly" to those who remember the typical barn dance atmosphere she created by her appearance and every mannerism.

However, Betty hasn't always been Aunt Polly. Before that she was just another student at high school in Manassas, Virginia. There she was an editor on the school paper and made one of the graduation speeches.

At M. W. C. Betty has joined the Classical Club. She is majoring in English and plans to teach when she graduates.

Betty admits that her weaknesses are "lemon pie and uniforms." She likes to read, play tennis, hike, and—

"Oh, yes, I love to chew gum!" Betty says that her personation of Aunt Polly was the idea of her roommates. She thanks them for her prize, a beautiful M. W. C. scrap book.

How does she like being "Aunt Polly"? Well—

"It was worth being a fool for!"

Annie's Almanac

To bed at eleven, arising at five

Makes a gal dull, and

scarcely alive

Oh knowledge! Oh

science! Where now is thy charm?

Who gets the best grade has the loudest alarm—

didn't know how to keep out of it. Do we?

Never knock a friend—just knock wood. It may be harder on your knuckles but its easier on your disposition.

Edley Obenchain's father: "You're not marrying Jack just because he's a good dancer, are you?"

Edley: "Oh, no, Daddy! He's awfully fond of the movies too!"

The Melting Pot

AWAKENING

Forgive the iron in my heart,
The cynic's gleam in my eye,
Forgive the searing bitterness
In a weak and rebellious cry.
Forgive an aching longing
For heights that aren't for me,
Burn out the tearless sobs
Convulsing unreasonably.

One taut throbbing strain tonight
Rolled back the blinding shade,
I had closed my eyes to beauty,
The sweetest of patterns paid!

Lord, forgive this foolish heart
In useless strife o'er wrought,
The Master Designer is blinding tears
With pain in beauty and lovelier thought.

—Margaret Burroughs.

I know: I must walk straight,
I mustn't look left and I mustn't
look right,
I must walk straight, head up,
chin in.

I must not loiter to admire tall
trees,
Nor pause to run my eager hand
Over their rough black bark,
And I mustn't stop to gaze at a white moon

Whirling carelessly across the sky.

I know (they must have told me
a hundred times!):
I must walk straight, head up, chin
in,

I must not loiter to watch old men

Dig trembling, dirty fingers in dirtier garbage cans,
The sweetest of patterns laid!
Nor pause to gaze at a tumbling,
crowded shack,
Wondering how much farther it will tilt

Before it fall to the ground,
And I mustn't stop to comfort a
coatless, sulky child.
(I'm to ignore the hunger and the pleading in his eyes
I'm to pretend he isn't there!)

What do they know of heaven or
hell,
Who see not enchanting splendor
In ancient silent trees:
Who do not feel a sharp and puzzling ache

At a white moon whirling carelessly
Across a cloud-patched sky.

What do they know of heaven or
hell,

Who see no others ills,
And smirk when told of old, old men

Digging dirty fingers in dirtier
garbage cans,
Who smirk again when told of a
coatless, sulky child
With hunger and pleading in his eyes.

I know:
I mustn't look left and I mustn't
look right,

I must walk straight, head up,
chin in.

But what do THEY know of heaven or hell?

Candid Shots

by

B. B. Shot

Click! Click! There goes our trusty little candid camera and guess what it recorded (such enormous words—you surprise yourself B. B.).

"Oh gosh, one week from tonight and I'll be a-cramming again but two weeks from tonight— Oh well, beautiful ones, why think of the future when so much is happening in the present—and has happened in the past . . .

Ruth Annesley and Dotty McNicholas were thankful for the irregularities in observance of the Thanksgiving holidays for their "friends" came all the way from North Carolina (Friends is in quotes 'cause Ruth and George—well, and Dotty is now the proud possessor of a Phi Kappa Sig pin).

The parlors are certainly crowded on west-end nights. You have to literally mow your way through them. And we're thinking that someone could do a good business with "reserve" signs . . .

Little Marie Danly and Eleanor Murray, one of those Georgia blondes, are going to "trip the light fantastic" tonight at the University of Richmond. Ain't some people lucky though?

It's definitely not spring but many a young man's fancy has . . . (you finish it, kids). Anyhow Rosalie Hilliard has bid adieu to M. W. C. and for what?—to be hitched! And then, there's that diamond recently acquired by that little red-headed Mary Lou Daniel. And of course, I'm not going to mention Arabella Lawes' debut on the radio—you ask her!

Speaking of love, do you mind if old B. B. gets a little philosophical? Flipping through the pages of my little book, I found this:

No where within the past has love a dwelling,
And love that is remembered is not love.

You know I've often wondered why Becky Buckingham insists on singing, "O, Johnny, O" . . . Why so many girls get chills and fevers when you mention the name BILLY . . . If Jay Field and Mary Pride enjoyed the Army-Navy game (Silly thought isn't it?)

Well, readers, (old "B. B." is very modest) may I wish you a merrie, merrie St. Nicholas vacation, May dear old Nick bring you your heart's desire—and I dare him to bring me a camera . . .

From Other Schools

DAFFYNITIONS

Steam—Water gone crazy with the heat.

Thigh—Guttural expression of disappointment.

X—What we have for breakfast.

Hen—Only creature on earth who can go on a sit down strike and still produce dividends.

—The Hyphen.

SERENADE BY TELEPHONE

Let us wing, my sweet, to that fabled city
Where dwell no daisies who are not fair.
Where men are handsome and strong and witty
And never recedes their youthful hair;
Where lovely children require no nurture,
Where rich and poor wear the same attire,
And where, inevitably, the searcher
Succeeds in finding his heart's desire.

Let us haste, my own, for the night is fleeting.
Your earthly duties to others give o'er.

Let us fix a tryst for our speedy meeting
Where we can flee to that blessed shore.
As if I had quaffed of Homeric brews, reels
My head when I think of that sphere sublime—
And through we may possibly miss the news reels,
I'm sure we can make the feature in time.

Neighbor: "I heard your kid bawling last night."
Jordan: "Yes, after four bawls, he got his base warmed."

—The Hyphen.

He tells me all his troubles,
I act as if I love 'em.
I hope, you see,
That I'll soon be
One of 'em.

—Campus Comments.

Was the Merchantville team surprised and not a little bit amused when our lassies let out a rousing cheer for Gloucester, whom they played the week before.

—B. H. S. Echo.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION CALENDAR

Saturday, December 9—Hiking from Flagstone Walk at 2:00.
Monday, December 11—Modern Dance Club meeting 4:00 to 5:30 Gym.
Monday, December 11—Athletic Association Council meeting 6:45 in Room 7 of Monroe Hall.
Wednesday, December 13—Modern Dance Club meeting from 4:00 to 5:30.
Friday, December 15—Meeting of the Terrapin Club at 7:00 swimming pool.

Make-Believe Proves Useful To Elementary Majors

"Mrs. Day, your son, Johnny, is getting along fine in his Arithmetic now."

"Oh, I'm so glad, Miss Weiss. We were worried about him for a while."

Yes, the girls are playing a game, but it's a game of "pretend" on a large scale. The Elementary Teachers' class in Home Economics, decided to give a banquet, as a final spurge for the quarter using all the information that they had learned during the quarter. This was given last Thursday evening in the Town Girls' Room.

In preparation for future careers, the girls were divided into groups of Mothers and Teachers and pretended that they were giving a Parent-Teacher Association dinner. They invited, as guests of honor, two members of their "State Board of Education" Dr. Edward Alvey and Mr. Boyd Graves, of Fredericksburg. Ellen Alvey, Mrs. Graves and daughter also attended.

Miss Annabel Merrill, instructor, of the class, was Head of the Home Economics Department of the make-believe school. The role of Mistress of Ceremonies was played by "Mrs." Jo Lee Fleet, whose duty it was to welcome the guests. "Mrs." Jane Day made a toast to the teachers while the group was led in song by Miss Anne Beadles.

After a jolly evening of make-believing, the thirty-two diners, excluding the guests, returned to reality and washed the dishes.

New Books . . .

(Continued from Page One)

"Ten One Act Plays", "Types of Domestic Tragedy", and "Debutant Plays For Girls."

Steinbeck's "Of Mice and Men", "Rampage" and "Loyalties" by Galsworthy, and John Drinkwater's "Abraham Lincoln."

Several books on Radio have been placed on the shelves also. "Radio Sketches and How to Write Them" and "Both Sides of the Microphone" will be useful not only to those in the Radio Workshop course, but to all who have an interest in that rapidly extending field.

Books on such diverse fields as Physical Education, Art, Music, Biography, Education and Philosophy, Science, Gardening, History and Social Sciences, and Children's Literature have also been added to the shelves.

Familiar titles in these classifications include "Fashion is Spinach", Hawes; "The Shape of Things to Come"; "Young Longfellow" by Thompson; and "Whitman" by Arvin.

The complete list of the new books, found in the library, should be consulted for there are books that will meet every interest.

Glee Club . . .

(Continued from Page One)

programs, Jane Adams; social, Mamie Stable; co-ordination, Leighton Stevens; vestments, Biddy Miller; costumes, Rosella Tuck and Katherine McNair; art, Estelle Whitehead; bulletin board, Jean Boyle; librarian, Ruth English.

Shelton & Truslow
ODORLESS
DRY CLEANING
Prompt Delivery Service
Telephone 523

Compliments of

THE HUB

Ladies Apparel

908 Caroline St.

New Club Plans Varied Activities

Newly elected president of a newly organized club is Miss Margaret Carpenter, president of Le Cercle Français, the French Club which began its constructive organization under Mrs. Mildred Bolling, sponsor and teacher, last Friday noon in the Student activities room. Miss Carpenter is a French major and is planning to teach French next year. Barbara Gaines, who also has a French major, was elected secretary of the Club. The following committee was appointed to supervise a suitable program for the next meeting of the Club tonight at 7:00: Hilda Clark, Gertrude Gresham, Betty Anthony, Eva Catafygiotou, Grace Pannill, and Daphne Crump.

The members have yet to elect a vice-president, treasurer, and publicity chairman. All the meetings are conducted in French, and a better understanding of French language and custom is the aim of the Club. The Club is also planning to start a collection of French dolls that depict the dress of the people of different French provinces.

Noted Physical Educator To Address Students

Mary Washington College is most fortunate in having Dr. Josephine L. Rathbone, Professor of Physical Education, Teachers College, Columbia University, as its guest on December 14th, 1939.

Dr. Rathbone, an internationally known speaker has given lectures in London, spent one semester in India as a guest of the government and was invited to be visiting professor at the University of China, but due to the war was unable to enter the country.

Dr. Rathbone is the author of "Corrective Physical Education" and has made a special study of the "Art of Relaxation."

The Physical Education Department will honor Dr. Rathbone at a tea on December 14th from 4:30 to 5:30 P. M. in the Dome Room in Seacoast Hall. Mrs. Bushnell will preside at the tea table, the Senior Physical Education majors will serve. All students majoring and minoring in Physical Education and the Administrative staff will be guests.

Dr. Rathbone will speak to the entire student body at 6:30 P. M. in the auditorium. All students and the faculty are invited to attend this lecture.

Barn Dance . . .

(Continued from Page One)

the dancing and special numbers were Marguerite Campbell, guitarist; June Stoll, ukulele; and Beulah Spain, pianist. Jo Ewing, Junior President, was M. C.

There were square dances and round dances, with the figures called by Miss Stewart, and these were interspersed with social dancing. Pictures were taken for the BATTLEFIELD. Peanuts and candy were plentiful throughout the evening. The big event, of

The Witching Hour In Willard

A night in Willard is a strange event.

As the "lights out" bell rings, we scramble around trying to do ten things at once, succeeding in making a hash of everything. We frantically turn out the lights. Leaving the door open, we brush our teeth by the light of (?). Stumbling over chairs and other objects, we creep to the windows, raising them with a loud bang. We hop in bed, tell roommates "good night," and so (we think) to sleep.

Roommate 1 asks roommate 2 if she has heard the latest gossip and talk tall. We get interested on the border of sleep, and rouse to turn over and ask what they just said. Conversation starts. Roommate 1 tells blood-curdling story which she heard on camping trip. Ensues a lengthy jam session on the gorier side of life, followed by long enthusiastic raves over Robert Taylor and the rest of glamorous boys.

Roommate 2 says "good night," she is sleepy; Roommate 1 giggles. We say "good morning by way of being sarcastic and truthful at once."

A strange noise is heard in the hall, followed by an even stranger noise. We think it might be spooks, 'til we happen to think that, after all, this is Willard and no noise is unusual in Willard.

Three people turn over and blissfully drift into sleep. The window, which is very independent, decides to close and does so with loud bang. Three heads go under the cover and emerge in disgust. Three people grump and again try to sleep. (It is 3 a. m.)

Two hours of uninterrupted slumber. The alarm goes off with an insistent shriek at 5 a. m. (Chemistry test must be studied). A sleepy head raises up, opens one eye, turns off the alarm and so to sleep till 7:15!

Guest Soloist Features Choral Club Concert

The Mary Washington College Choral Club will present a programme of Christmas music on Sunday afternoon, December 10, at four o'clock, in the auditorium of the James Monroe High School in Fredericksburg. All lovers of Christmas music are invited to attend this programme, for which there will be no admission charge.

Dr. Luther A. Richman, State Supervisor of Music in Virginia, will be the guest soloist with the club. Dr. Richman has a beautiful baritone voice and his singing here and elsewhere has always brought forth enthusiastic praise. He will be heard in two numbers with the club and will also sing a group of solos. Miss Nora Willis will be his accompanist.

The Mary Washington College Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Ronald Faulkner, will be heard on the programme and will accompany the club in several numbers. Other numbers will be contributed to the programme by Mrs. Brawner Bolling and Miss Marion Chauncey, playing "Gesù Bambino" on two violins; the Mary Washington College Double Quartette, singing four numbers; and Miss Phyllis Walker, president of the club and soprano soloist. The accompanists for the club are Rose Ronci and Margaret Dudley, and the director of the club is Miss Eva Taylor Eppes.

course, was the Grand March and awarding of the prize for the 'corniest' costume. Judges for the contest were Dr. and Mrs. Bauer, Mr. and Mrs. Darter, and Miss Turman. Betty Collins, Freshman, won the prize and remarked, as she accepted it, "It was worth making a fool of myself for." Runners were Margaret Walden and Lucille Decker. The last square dance was done to the tune of "Good Night Ladies."

Athenaeum Holds Second Meeting

On Monday, December 4, at 4:30 o'clock, in the Latin room in Custis basement, the Athenaeum, now fully organized and "classified," held its second meeting. Eva Catafygiotou, president, presided. After the various reports were presented and approved, the members of the club, as well as the officers of it, discussed of the considerable business at hand. First the matter of a picture for the BATTLEFIELD was discussed, and the members agreed quite readily as to the type of picture they desire. Various other plans for publicity were also mentioned.

A committee, working under the chairmanship of Almada Hill, had prepared a constitution which, after some discussion, was accepted by the Athenaeum by a majority vote. Following its acceptance, it was suggested and agreed to incorporate the constitution in the form of a scroll after the old Roman fashion. The members also deemed it worthwhile to call their officers by the Latin terms rather than the English. The motto suggested by the sponsor, Miss Catesby Willis, was popular with everyone since "Quaerit ad superos viam," (She seeks a way to the heights) line selected from Seneca's HERCULES, is quite in accordance with the aim of the Athenaeum.

Several members of the faculty will be invited to be honorary members of the club. Initiation of all members has been postponed to a date immediately after Christmas. A program committee was chosen for the next meeting.

Betty Anne Beauty Shop

Shampoo & Fingerwave 65c
Permanent Waves
$2.50 to $7.50
Phone 440-W 822 Main St.

Casual Comments On Current Fashions At The Vogue

By Cary Billingley

Nothing less than intuition could have made THE VOGUE manage to get hold of just the things you love to give and receive. Everything you've ever dreamt of is reposing on our shelves. And things you've never even conceived of are there too... with no heavy price tags to leaden your heart. So be smart and SHOP EARLY FOR FUN, VALUES, COMFORT, SELECTION and CONVENIENCE. There are only 13 more shopping days until Christmas.

Housecoats are a real necessity in any girl's wardrobe. "Schrannle" robes in pink, blue, or rose at $6.50 and $7.98. We have a beautiful ice blue satin negligee!

When it comes to evening bags we really have some "beauts". A brand new group of kid, rhinestone and sequin bags arrived this week. They are in all kinds of shapes and sizes. The prices are varied.

Dance sets are always a grand gift. We have a wide election of them with lace or tailored in pink, blue, white and even black. If you prefer the plainer pantie then see our Kayser pantie for only $1.00. They will certainly last and without runs. The dance sets are $1.49.

Brassieres will please any friend especially one of The Vogue's Maiden Form bras. They come in many styles and sizes. With all the Christmas dances just around the corner maybe you would like an evening brassiere. Prices are $1.00 and $1.50.

Slips—Now here's something we all like especially the new very feminine ones that are all frilly around the bottom. Very nice when your dress is a little too short or has a full skirt that is a little difficult to control. $1.98 and $2.98.

Stockings! Stockings! Who wants a pair of stockings? EVERYBODY! This is a gift you can never go wrong in giving. We carry several well known brands of chiffrons at prices from 85c to $1.50. Can't Run Hose are grand for school or dress. We guarantee our Can't Run!—If they run just bring them back and get another pair. Only $1.15 and $1.35.

THE FLORENCE SHOP

Its Smart to be Thrifty
"One of A Kind"
Always Something New

DON'T THROW AWAY YOUR OLD WHITE SHOES.

Let Us Dye Them To Match Your Fall Clothes Shoes dyed any color.

Sullivan Shoe Repair Shop

Princess Anne Beauty Shop

Princess Anne Hotel
Lower Lobby

Shampoo, Finger Wave
(pin curls)

Telephone 910

Special To College

Girls 50c
ALL EXCEPT OPERATORS

THE BRENT STORE

LINGERIE—HOSIERY—UNDERWEAR
GLOVES—NOVELTIES—NOTIONS
DRY GOODS—MILLINERY

Your Shopping Center

Phone 70

Fredericksburg, Va.

PITTS THEATRES VICTORIA COLONIAL

Sat., Dec. 9
Charlie Chan in
"CITY IN DARKNESS"
with Sidney Toler, Lynn Bari, Richard Clarke, Harold Huber
also News-Our Gang Comedy
Special Added Attraction
Fri.-Sat., Dec. 8-9
"Zorro's Fighting Legion"
Chapter 1

Sun., Dec. 10
The Jones Family in
"TOO BUSY TO WORK"
also News-Musical-Novels
2 Shows: 3 P. M. & 9 P. M.
Mon.-Tues., Dec. 11-12
Fyrone Power-Linda Darnell
in
"DAY-TIME WIFE"
with Warren William-
Binnie Barnes
also News-Passing Parade

Fri.-Sat., Dec. 8-9
"HERITAGE OF THE DESSERT"
with Donald Woods-
Evelyn Venable
added News-Final Chapter,
"Oregon Trail"
also Chapter 1 of The Greatest of All Serials
"The Phantom Creeps"

Mon.-Tues., Dec. 11-12
Fred Stone-Rochelle Hudson
in
"KONGA, THE WILD STALLION"
also News-Cartoon-Musical-Novels
Wed.-Thurs., Dec. 13-14
Stuart Erwin-Marjorie Weaver
in
"THE HONEYMOON'S OVER"

Basketball Plans Are Being Made

The Winter Quarter at Mary Washington College is the time for basketball, and plans are already far under way to start this sport immediately after the Christmas holidays. The Basketball Committee, made up of the Basketball class managers of last year, Miss Josephine Inskip, Chairman of Basketball for this year and Dr. Sinclair of the Physical Education Staff, has recently met and have sent out a short report on their plans for the 1939-40 series of games.

This committee has decided that the dormitory tournaments will include only those girls who did not make class teams last year and those Freshmen who have had fewer than two years High School varsity. This will encourage girls to come out for basketball and will give more competition.

Teams are being organized by various leaders on the campus, appointed by the basketball chairman, and by girls who made teams last year.

The Alumni Game, the big event of the season, will be played either February 3rd or the 10th.

This committee has announced the class teams the following respective hours for regular practice, and a coach for each team.

Freshmen—Monday 7:00 to 8:00 P. M., Miss Spiesman.

Sophomores—Friday 4:00 to 5:00, Dr. Baker.

Juniors—Friday 7:00 to 8:00 P. M., Dr. Sinclair.

Seniors—Thursday, 7:00 to 8:00 P. M., Miss Rogers.

All right, Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors and last but not least Seniors, come on out and win the championship in basketball this year.

Seniors Victorious In Tournament

The winners of the first round of the series of volleyball elimination tournament games are as follows:

The Pierce Pole-Cats won from the Sophomore Majors; the Kirby Kangaroos came out ahead of the Freshmen Majors; the Senior Majors winning from the Junior Majors; the Waldens from the Applegates; and the Maxinettes forfeiting to the Town Girls.

In the second round of the series of games the winners of the first round competed with the following teams winning: The Kirby Kangaroos vs. Senior Majors; the Seniors winning by a small margin of 2 points; the Waldens vs. Town Girls; Town Girls forfeiting to the Waldens.

In the final game the Seniors defeated the Waldens, 30-14.

Miller's Specialty Shops

SPECIALISTS
IN LADIES' APPAREL

Fredericksburg, Va.

Ask those who have tried Food like your mother prepares at the

OCCIDENTAL RESTAURANT

which has served the M. W. C. students for 19 years.

We invite you and your guests to dine with us.

Class In Bowling To Be Offered

To those who prefer their ten pins in the alley rather than the sky, here's your chance at Bowling. For those who know how to bowl and those who want to know how, there is a place for you both, only sign immediately on the Bulletin Board, for the number who can be accommodated is limited.

Students who wish to take Bowling regularly must meet the prerequisite of previous experience in Bowling. The fee will be $3.00 a quarter and Miss Connie Moore, who will be the chaperone, will meet this group every Wednesday from 4:00 to 5:00 P. M. starting January 13.

Students who wish to take Bowling irregularly are not required to have previous experience in it. Dr. Hobart Carter will chaperone this group, starting Saturday, January 6, from 3:00 to 4:00 P. M. and after that every Tuesday from 4:00 to 5:00 P. M. A fee of 10c will be charged for each game.

GIRLS YOU HAD BETTER BE SIGNING FOR BASKETBALL OFFICIATING! DECEMBER 8th IS THE DEAD LINE FOR SIGNERS.

Inter-Class Game

One of the most interesting and most exciting hockey games of the entire season was witnessed last Thursday, when Miss Sarah Rogers' class in beginner's hockey the "Penney's" met Dr. Caroline Sinclair's beginner's class the "Sinclair Specials" in one of a final extra-class series of games scheduled for this season. The game was fast, indeed. The "Sinclair Specials" won the game by a number of scores and went on their way to take another victory as soon as given a chance. However, they did meet quite a bit of fast opposition in this game.

In a Class series of Tennis Tournament games played in Dr. M. C. Baker's class, Miss Gladys Dutrow came out Victorious.

Let's Play Badminton!

Badminton games are being played every Monday, Wednesday and Friday during the Lunch hour. Other games are being scheduled. Come on out and join in the fun and recreation. Watch the Bulletin Board for further information regarding times to play Badminton.

Kodak

Developing and printing that you will like.

Free Enlargements

Judson Smith

Dance Club To Perform For Faculty Wives

The Modern Dance Club will present a program at a meeting of the Faculty wives on Wednesday evening, December 13, in the Dome Room of Seabeck Hall. The dancers will present a group of techniques, and an original creation of the club, THE ADORATION OF THE SHEPHERDS. This is the year's first Modern Dance program. The performers chosen were: Frances Willis, Penny Bein, Dorothy Graef, Myran Russel, Bonnie Hall, Nan Thompson, Mary Pappandrea, Mary Stephens, and Annette Hodette.

This season's third social meeting was held tonight. The members and their sponsor, Miss Mildred Stewart, had dinner together at special tables in the dining hall and afterwards attended the movie, "Drums Along the Mohawk."

Folk Dancing Class Has Second Party

The folk dancing class, under the direction of Dr. Sinclair held their second party Monday night, December 4, at 8:00 in the Gymnasium.

Each member of the class was allowed the privilege of inviting one guest.

Dorothy Felts acted as general chairman of the party. Those assisting her were Emma Comstock, Barbara Gains, Jean Humme and Nancy Hesse.

The entertainment for the evening consisted of dances done by the entire group and some by groups from the class. Towards the latter part of the evening a contest was held to determine the best dancer. June Wendell and her partner Dorothy Felts were the last ones dancing, winning the first prize.

Sodas, Ice Cream Sandwiches and a final square dance brought the enjoyable evening to a close.

Warm, Colorful—
GLOVES AND MITTENS

Brilliant colors and patterns in pure worsted! Closely knit for snug warmth. And the price means real savings to you 49c

Other good looking styles at 59c and 79c

Penney's

GIRLS - - -

MEET YOUR FRIENDS

— AT —

THE SOUTHERN GRILL

Results of the Golf Tournament

Section 245D, 9:30 T. Th. S.
1. Field, Judith, 20 holes, 142
2. Spencer, Elizabeth, 20 holes, 151
3. Starwell, Helen, 20 holes, 162
Section 245C, 11:30 T. Th. S.
20 holes

1. Cheshire, Ruth, 113
2. Palmer, Winnie, 125
3. Hall, Lee, 126
Section 245A, 2 M. W. F.
1. Furman, Margerite—75
2. Elliott, Lavinia—88
3. Turner, Nancy—106
Section 245B, 3 M. W. F.
24 holes

1. Jones, Amnee, 176
2. Vondra, Clara, 177
Strader, Eloise, 180
Range of Scores—75-275
Average (20 holes)—165

German Club . . .

(Continued from Page One)

The guests of the opening dance are: Misses Dorothy Adams, Addie Lee Barrett, Becky Biddlestone, Jane Bonney, Mildred Bolen, Hazel Cantwell, Marjorie Carpenter, Mae Chalfante, Marjorie Clapp, Anne Clark, Jackie Copeland, Elsie Mae Cornwell, Marie Danby, Dorothy DeHart, Lucille Dettas, Dorothy Drumwright, Jackie Edge, Josephine Ewing, Mary Frances Featherstone, Barbara Gargus, Mary George Gay, Marion Gibbs, Virginia Glimmer, Anne Gossett, Hannah Grashl, Dorothy Harrington, Charlotte Hawthorne, Mary Vaughan Heazel, Winnie Hudson, Paig Ann Huffman, Frances Inglis, Hazel Jewett, Amnee Jones, Marion Jones, Frances Kidd, Mary Etta Landrum, Alyce Lindeau, Fale Livanman, Margaret Lewis, Madge Matthews, Biddy Miller, Sarah Lee Miller, Eugenia Moore, Margaret Moore, Dorothy Morrison, Julia Mosely, Catherine Newcome, Winfred Palmer, Diana Patch, Edith Patterson, Anne Parker, Charlotte Pride, Jane Prillman, Constance Pucey, Virginia Reel, Margaret Reinhart, Katherine Roberts, Ruth

Recreation Group Announces Schedule

The Recreational Program sponsored by the class in Community Recreation and under the direction of Miss Mildred P. Stewart has started to function. The following is a schedule of the activities and the names of the students in charge:

Monday—7:00 P. M.—8:00 P. M.—Gymnasium—Folk Dancing Jean McCaffery.

Tuesday—7:00 P. M.—8:00 P. M.—Gymnasium—Modern Dance. Margaret Morrison. 8:00 P. M.—9:00 P. M.—Pool—Swimming. Helen Roberts.

Thursday—7:00-8:00 P. M.—Badminton—Gymnasium—Nancy Turner.

Friday—7:00 P. M.—8:00 P. M.—Bridge in all Dormitories: Virginia—Harriett Rady.

Westmoreland—Jean McCaffery. Betty Lewis—Helen Roberts. Mary Ball—Evelyn Kirby.

Frances Willard—Jean Plyer. 7:00 P. M.—8:00 P. M.—Social Dancing for Beginners—Gymnasium. Susan Johnson.

4:00-4:30 P. M.—Gymnasium—Beginners' Tap Dance.

4:30-5:00 P. M.—Gymnasium—Advanced Tap Dance. Kathryn Resch.

Saturday—2 P. M.—6 P. M.—Shuffle Board, Ping Pong. Jeannetta Penny.

Mr. Oscar Darter is in charge of the Astronomy group which met Tuesday, December 5. They decided to have a regular meeting on Second Friday of Winter quarter to make further plans.

Dr. Arms of the English Department is sponsoring the Debating and the Creative writing groups and this group will be divided into about 10 groups, each group having a student leader.

Seay, Marie Seay, Mary Ellen Seaborn, Ruth Cearlett, Martha Snead, Leighton Stevens, Elizabeth Ann Thomas, Rosetta Tuck, Mary Unroe, Prentiss Vaughan, Nancy Walker, Fenton Wambersie, Emma Ruth Watkins, June Wendel, Catherine Welch, Virginia Westlake, Jane Wickes, Mary Lou Wilcox, Mary Levensy Wilcox, Nancy Lee Wilkinson, Alice Williams, Frances Willa, Ila Yeatts, Eleanor Yount and Daphne Crump.

ATTENTION EVERYBODY!

Your college Tea-Room invites you to eat good food at popular prices.

Hours:

8 to 5: Monday thru Friday.

8 to 2: Saturday.

8:30 to 9:30: Every nite.

4 to 5: Sunday afternoon.

"Happy Eating"

CAMERA FILM SPECIAL OFFER TO STUDENTS ONLY

6 ROLLS m-116 m-127 m-135 m-161 $1.19

SIZE—m-116 & m-416—5 ROLLS—$1.19

This offer made by one of the world's oldest film manufacturers, cooperating with us to encourage amateur photography and better pictures. Order at once and make this 75c saving.

SPECIAL STUDENTS' FINISHING SERVICE

Mail your roll film (any make) to us for developing and printing and receive 8 DOUBLE SIZE 25¢ (16 Exposure Rolls 45¢)

Send Coin with Film
MAIL PHOTO SERVICE
PRINCETON, IND.

Frank's
THANKS YOU
At The Gate

BREAD CAKES

FOR HEALTH'S SAKE EAT

Betty Lewis Products

416 Commerce Street

PIES

DOUGHNUTS